

Research and Development MOU Signing Ceremony between Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock and Irrigation of Myanmar and University of Miyazaki, Japan

Union minister for Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock and Irrigation, Dr. Aung Thu received President, Dr. Tsuyomu IKENOUE, Miyazaki University, Japan and his teams at meeting hall of the ministry, NPT on yesterday evening. During the meeting, matters pertaining to cooperating in cooperative research projects for water sanitation of aquaculture and prawn culture, health and disease control projects for aquatic, improvement projects for development of food quality, training courses to employees for development of Human Resources and projects for development in fisheries were frankly discussed.

Then Miyazaki University and together with Department of Fisheries, memorandum of understanding (MOU) of research projects in aquaculture and disease control in fish, together with Department of Rural Development, memorandum of understanding (MOU) of cooperating in rural electricity projects and receiving of purify water in rural area, together with University of Veterinary Science, memorandum of understanding (MOU) of translations of research and professional knowledge and together with Livestock Breeding and Veterinary Department, memorandum of understanding (MOU) of translation of employees visitings were signed with respective Directors and Rector and President Dr. Tsuyomu IKENOUE from University of Miyazaki.

Later, President Dr. Tsuyomu IKENOUE, Miyazaki University, Japan and his teams went to Small-scale Industries Department at office No 16, Nay Pyi Taw and viewed around the finished products from loom and professional training school.

